Mongile Publishers

About us

Mongile Publishers is a 100% black, female owned publishing company established in 2005. We are based in Seaview, Durban.

Mongile Publishers is the sole publisher of school posters made from PVC material. It is a durable material designed to withstand many environmental conditions.

Our posters are available in all learning areas and in all 11 South African languages.

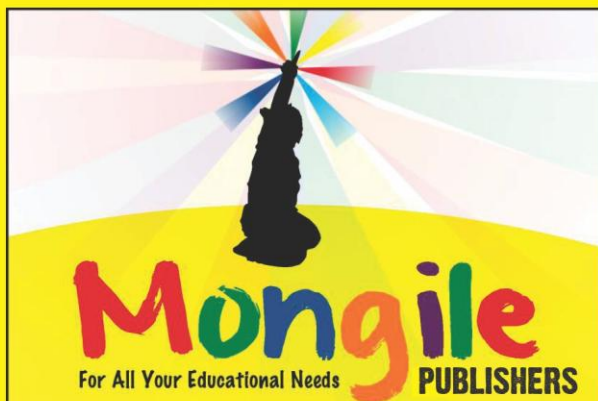

Our posters are available in user friendly kits and can also be custom-made.

We cater for schools, libraries and higher learning institutes across South Africa. Our posters are listed on most catalogues of the Department of Education countrywide.

We pride ourselves in offering the most advanced services in publishing. Our unique products make us the best in the market. Our quality, price and service are envy of our competitors.

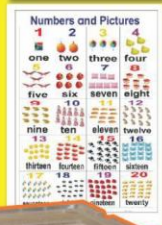

Mongile Publishers is always sensitive to customer needs and satisfies these by diversifying and adapting its operations.

Our facilitators are readily available to conduct workshops on the use of our resources.
